Announcements

- Snacks- If you are a parent who is able to afford to bring in snacks for the whole class, that would be appreciated, as I do have those days students cry because they don't have snack and sometimes affects their whole morning. Animal crackers, goldfish, or crackers are ones I usually see.
- REPORT CARDS are coming home today UNLESS your child didn't bring their folder back to school. I don't want it to get lost as it has some very important documents in it other than the report card (a rubric to explain the report card, our fall conference sheet, CGI problems for your child to work on, and your child's vocabulary list showing the words they still need help on).
- If you have a fall conference sheet with a sticky note on it, please return it signed so I can make you a copy to keep. I need the originals for the end of the year.
- Homework- wow what a great turn out of those who turned in their October reading log! Great job parents. I'll be sending the November one today. I hope to see way more turned in this next go round.
