- Snacks- Thank you so much to those who were able to donate snacks or had the will to. Because of you, I had some dry faces and smiles already this week! ^_^
- REPORT CARDS - Just a reminder, please take out all of the contents inside the brown envelopes. They are yours to keep.
- If you have a fall conference sheet with a sticky note on it, please return it signed so I can make you a copy to keep. I need the originals for the end of the year.
- Veterans Day- This Friday, bring a veteran to the morning assembly so that they may be honored.
- New inserts - in your child's folder, you will find some new papers in the brads (thanks Mrs. Sholars)! I will also be sending out a link so you can let me know if you found the helpful or not. Please let us know, first grade wants to know if we should make this an annual thing for the coming years!
- Keep reading with your coconuts and asking them questions about their reading. Thanks for all that you do!

Math

We are learning how about place value!

Reading & Writing

We are learning about non-fiction stories, text features, and learning how to write how-to stories!

Science

Exploring positional words!
